FIGHT AT THE "PEN."

Colored Convicts Engage in a Desperate Battle-One Badly Injured.

In the whip shop at the state penitentiary in Moundsville yesterday about 4 o'clock, there was a lively scufin Moundsville vesterday about 4 o'clock, there was a lively scutfle between two convicts, both colored.
An Intelligencer reporter happened to be at the "pen" a few minutes after it happened, but could not gain much information about the affair, as it was desired to keep the matter as quiet as possible. From what could be learned, it appears that two convicts, Ferguson and Finley, were working side by side in the shop and became engaged in a quarrel, which ended in severe blows being struck with hammers and gashes cut with knives. Ferguson is a negro and Finley is a mulatto. Finley, from all appearances, got the better of his antagonist, for when he struck Ferson on the head with a hammer it bounded off as if it had been made of rubber, but left a wound. Not satisfied with bruising him this way. Finley went at Ferguson with a knife and gave him a cut on the head. By this time guards had arrived on the scene and separated the combatants and led them to the physician's room, where the wounds of the finjured were dressed: Both convicts will receive punishment for committing the offense. It was not learned whether Finley was hurt, or not.

The entertainment given at the Presbyterian church last night by the Society for Church Erection, illed the building to its autmost and was worth several times the admission. It was in charge of the ladies and the following neted as ushers: Misses Lillie Dean, Ella Inglebright, Jesste Helling, Pier Coleman and Manne Swart. The first part consisted of music by the Oriental Mandolin Club, solo by J. C. Gray; reading by Clarence Carlisle; solo by Mrs. John M. Turner; solo by Mrs. Marcia Schofield; sextette by Mrs. J. M. Turner, Missea Mary Thomas, and Kate Greer and Messrs. Ernest G. Smith, George Inglebright and Bart Pickens; Mandolin Club. The second part consisted of a "Torn Thumb Wed. Presbyterian church last night by the part consisted of a "Tom Thumb Wedding," and it was a success in every particular. The bride, groom, rector, page, flower girls, pillow carriers, maid of honor, father and mother, chorus and guests were all children, some only three, four and five years old. The bride wore a white cream gown and who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact, that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanliness without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is therefore all important, in order to get its beneficial effects, to note when you purchase, that you have the genuine article, which is manufactured by the California Fig Strup Co. only and sold by all reputable druggists.

If in the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, laxatives or other remedies are then not needed. If afflicted with any actual disease, one may be commended to the most skillful physicians, but if in need of a laxative, one should have the best, and with the well-informed everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely beed and gives most gone al satisfaction.

white veil and carried roses, The groom was attired in a full dress suit. The "gentlemen" attendants all wore full dress suits and the ladies were attired in evening dress of white or plais, the chorus girls all wearing white Empire gowns. The rector wore a gown. Mrs. W. T. Dixon presided at the plano and the chorus girls were the first to enter and marched up the left aisle to the platform, followed by the bridal party, until the last one had appeared. The ceremony then took place, the ring service being used. The affair resembled a real wedding, all of the little folies taking their parts splendidly and to the satisfaction of the puny people present. At the conglusion of the programme refreshments were sold and a handsome sum was realized. Miss Barrett was the bride aid S. G. Robinson, ir., the groom. Phil Williams was the officialing rector. Paul Gray the father, Isabel Dremien the mother, James Mitchell the page, Nister Shrave and Dora Smith the pillow bearers, Edna McKee and Helen Boyd the flower girls. Alice Reed the unid of honor, is only five years old and Helen Boyd leas than three years old. There were sixteen guesis and twelve chorus girls.

The saddest word that can be graven on marble or granite shaft—and Heaven knows there are too many sad ones—is "Mother!" Year after year women go their reckless way neglecting the health and strength of their womanly selves, as if their only object in life was a grave-stone inscribed "Mother." The woman who fails to care for the health of the delicate and important organs that bear the burdens of life-giving, should know that motherhood only holds out to her the menace of certain suffering and probable death.

Women of wisdom know that by re-
